

RIVERVALLEY CONSULTING SERVICES & AFFILIATES (“RiverValley”)

PRIVACY POLICY

RiverValley is committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to our web site. As part of this commitment we have provided this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices available to you regarding the way your information is collected and used.

What Information We Collect

This site recognizes and collects, when possible, the domain name (for example, abc.edu or xyz.com) of a visitor’s web server; however, we do not automatically collect the full e-mail addresses of visitors to our site. The only way we obtain personally identifiable information is when you provide it voluntarily and explicitly:

- On a request for Information
- On a form
- On a survey or feedback form
- On a question submitted to us or one of our resources

Through any of the above forms or requests, visitors may be asked to furnish their name, address, phone number or e-mail address. Unless provided by you, RiverValley cannot access any personal information from your visit to our website.

How We Use Information

The information gathered by our site is used to:

- Answer consumers’ and professionals’ questions
- Improve our web site
- Determine the number of visitors to our site each day, and from where they are coming.

Additionally we use e-mail addresses provided by visitors to mail requested information and to respond to comments submitted through our feedback and survey forms, when indicated.

RiverValley does not sell, trade or rent personal information about our visitors, nor will we disclose your personal information to organizations unless we are authorized by you to do so, or are required by law.

Your Consent

By using our web site, you consent to the collection and use of the information described above by RiverValley. We will post changes in this policy on this page to update users about the information we collect when you visit, how we use the data and under what circumstances we disclose information.

Tell Us What You Think

Help us help you. RiverValley welcomes your questions and comments. If you have any questions, problems, concerns, and/or comments
